Book of Mormon stories

that my teacher tells to me

Are about the Lamanites

in ancient history.

Long ago their fathers came
from far across the sea,

Giv'n the land
if they lived righteously.

Lamanites met others
who were seeking liberty,

And the land soon welcomed
all who wanted to be free.

Book of Mormon stories say that we must brothers be,

Giv'n the land
if we live righteously.

Alma was rebellious, and he fought against the right.

Then one day an angel came to turn him to the light.

Struck before his brethren,
Alma learned humility.

Then he taught
in the land righteously.

Don't forget Abinadi,
who stood before the king.

All chained up from head
to toe, the gospel he did bring.

If he would deny it, then the king would set him free.

He was true,
and he died righteously.

Ammon was a missionary
serving Lamanites,

Tending King Lamoni's sheep
for several days and nights.

Robbers came; he saved the sheep by fighting fearlessly.

He had learned
he could live righteously.

Once two thousand sons of God
were called to fight the foe.

Marching as an army
into battle they did go.

They believed that Christ the Lord their guardian would be.

They had learned they should live righteously.

Samuel the Lamanite,
high on the city wall,

Came to warn the people,
and repentance was his call.

Arrows could not hit him,
for a man of God was he,

And he taught
in the land righteously.

After Christ was crucified
and died for you and me,

He came forth to teach the truth to all who would be free.

Hands were laid upon each child.
He blessed them tenderly,

And they lived
in the land righteously.
