Every Star Is Different

Words by John C. Cameron
Music by K. Newell Dayley

Pictures from: The Friend & The New Era
Ev'ry star is diff'rent,

And so is ev'ry child.
Some are bright and happy,

And some are meek and mild.
Ev'ry one is needed
For just what he can do.
You're the only person

Who ever can be you.
A shining star, shining brightly,
Not so very far, shining brightly;
Be a shining star. Shine so brightly;
Shine right where you are, brightly!

Be a shining star. Shine so brightly;
Shine right where you are, brightly!
I can shine for others

And let them feel my love,
Follow the commandments
That come from God above.
I can help another
To learn to choose the right.
Having faith and courage

Will let my star shine bright.
A shining star, shining brightly,
Not so very far, shining brightly;
Be a shining star. Shine so brightly;
Shine right where you are, brightly!

Be a shining star. Shine so brightly;
Shine right where you are, brightly!