

He Came For Us

Words by Michael G. Facer
Music by Tom Edward Clark

Pictures from The Friend & The Ensign

When Jesus Christ
was on the earth

so many years ago,

He taught our Heav'nly Father's plan

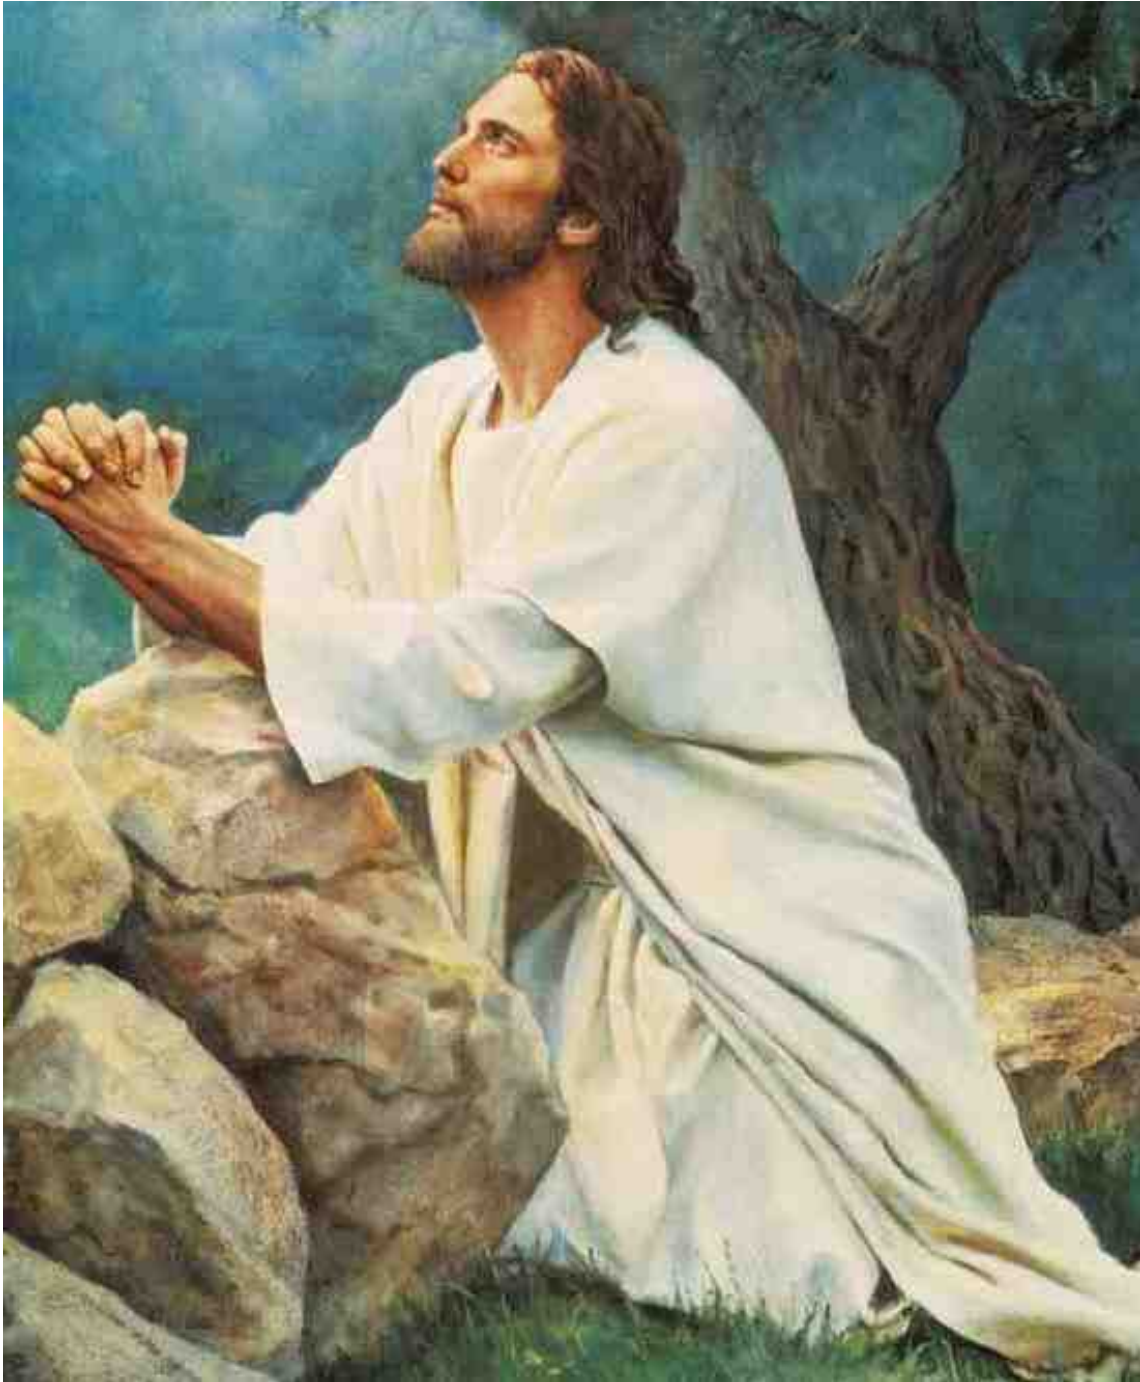

For children here below.

He came for us;
He died for us—

All to fulfill
our Father's plan.

On Calvary, Gethsemane,

He sacrificed that we might live again.

Through parables,
with simple words,

He said,
“Come, follow me,”

That we might now
have joy on earth

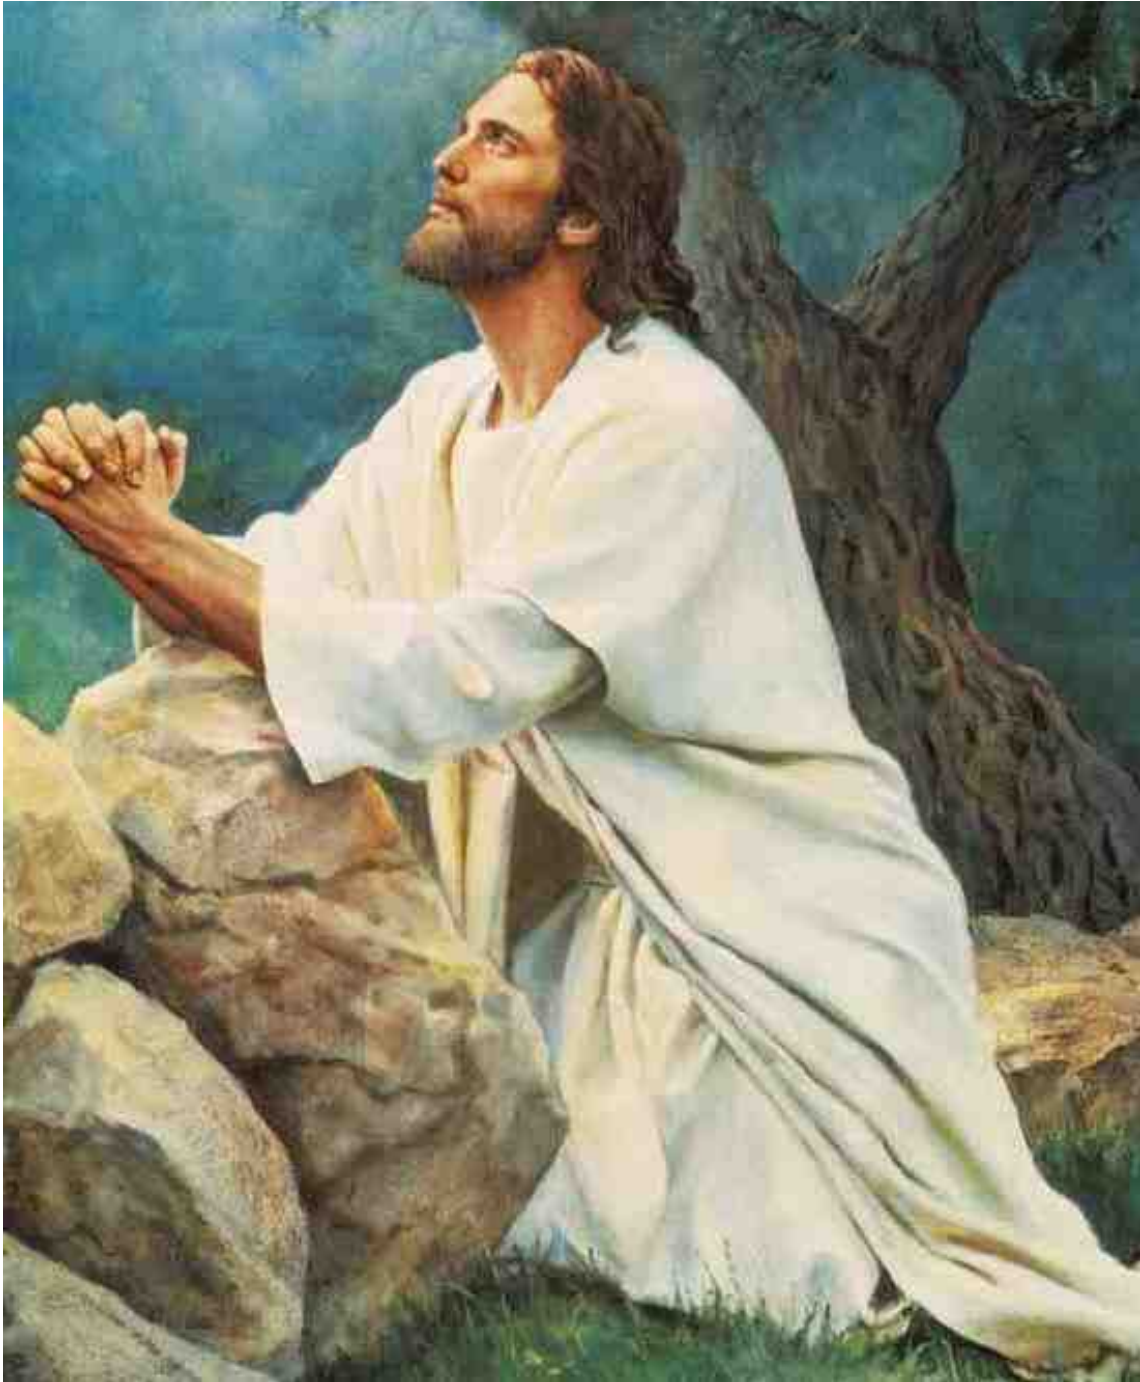

And live eternally.

He came for us;
He died for us—

All to fulfill
our Father's plan.

On Calvary, Gethsemane,

He sacrificed that we might live again.

That Easter morn, disciples ran

to see where Jesus lay;

And there they saw a miracle:

The stone was rolled away!

He came for us;
He died for us—

All to fulfill
our Father's plan.

On Calvary, Gethsemane,

He sacrificed that we might live again.