

Repentance

from The Friend, June 1977

Music by Wanda B. Blaisdell

Words by Maurine B Deen

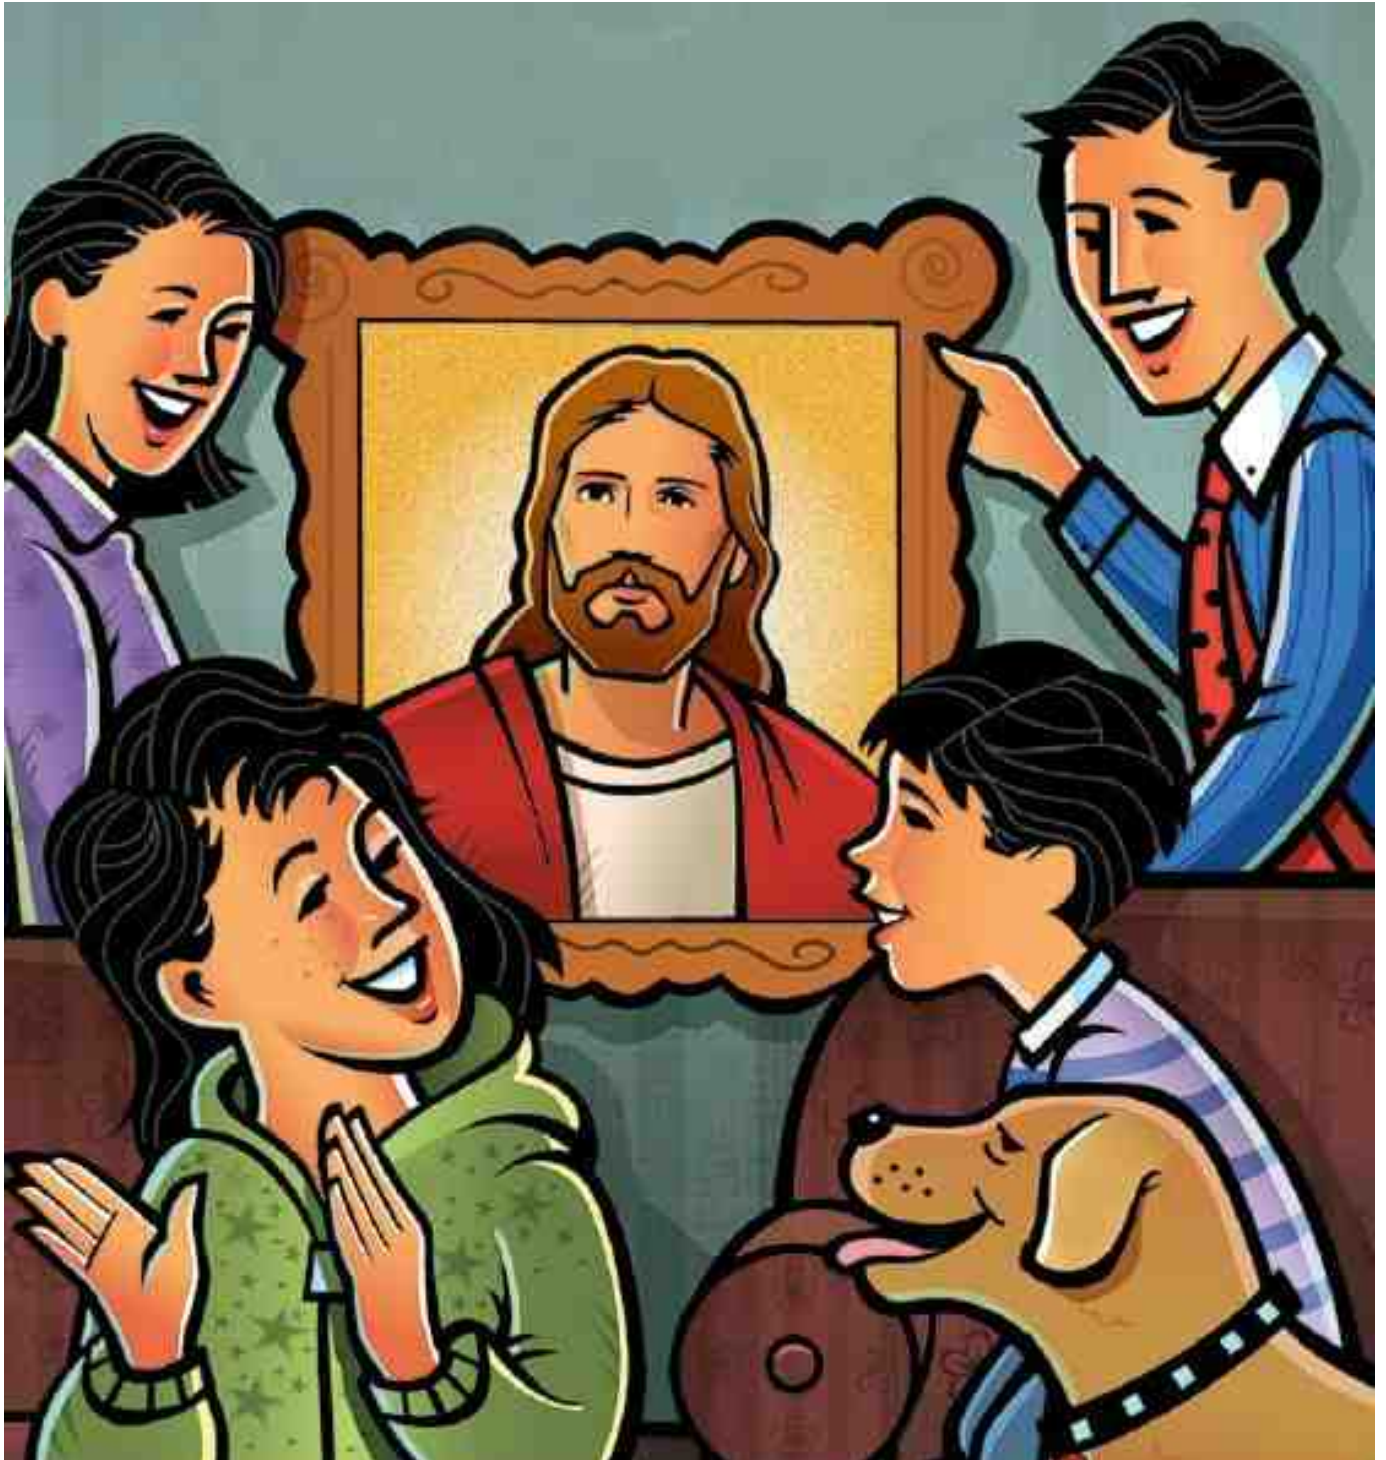

Pictures from The Friend

When I don't mind
my parents

And want to have my way,

I soon feel very sorry
For things I do and say.

And so I ask forgiveness

To show I really care.

I talk to Heav'nly Father,

Young Boy Praying, photo © 2006 IRI

Who always hears my prayer.

I love my Heav'nly Father

And earthly parents too.

They want to be forgiving

For wrong things that I do.

If I keep trying harder

To live
the way I should,

I'll turn away from evil,

Repent, and seek what's good.