

The Savior's Gift to Me

Words & Music by Annie Bailey

Pictures from: The Friend, The New Era, & Gospel Art Book (GAB)

Long ago in Gethsemane

the Savior gave
a great gift to me.

He paid the price for all my sins.

He suffered just for me.

He wants me to take His gift
and try to do better,

try to do better each day.

When I make a mistake

the Savior still loves me.

He always loves me,

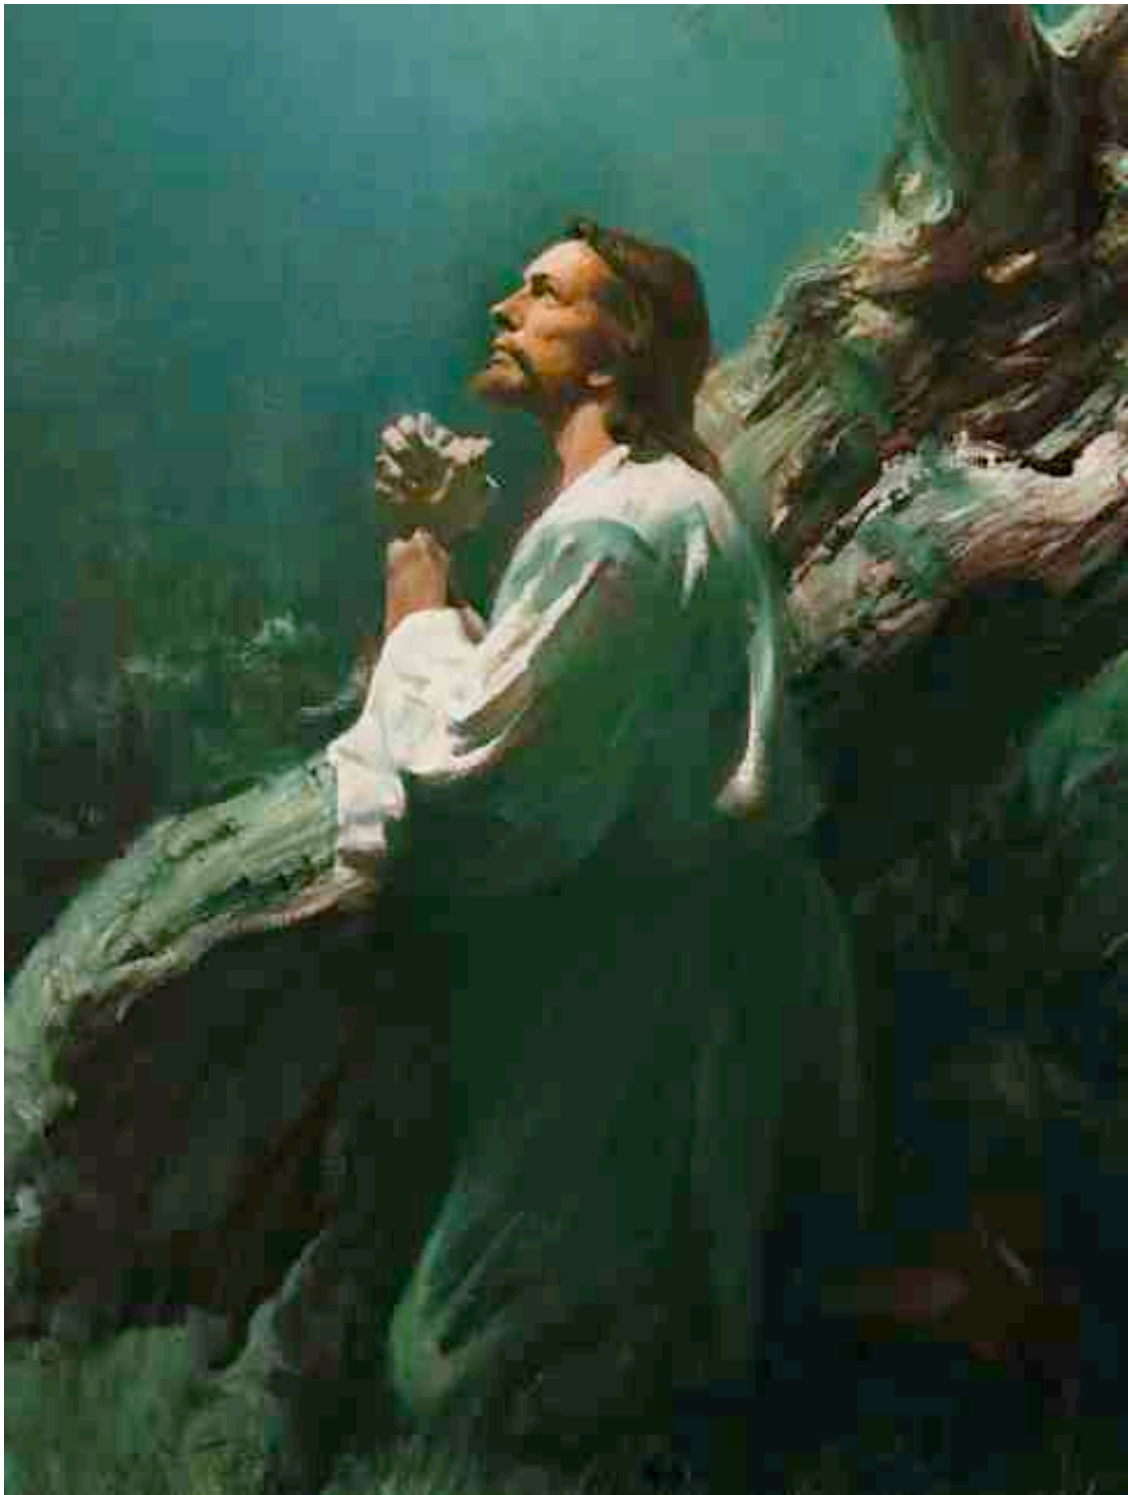

loves me and wants me
to grow each day.

Long ago Christ went willingly

to give up His life, to die for me.

He paid the price for all my sins.

He suffered just for me.

He wants me to take His gift
and try to do better,

try to do better each day.

When I make a mistake

the Savior still loves me.

He always loves me,

loves me and wants me
to grow each day.